Bankruptcy Attorney

Keith D. Weiner & Associates is seeking an attorney to join it's robust creditors' rights practice. The attorney will represent national creditors in consumer and commercial bankruptcy proceedings, managing assigned matters from initial review through resolution.

This position requires an attorney who can work independently, manage deadlines, and provide practical legal guidance while maintaining a high standard of client service. The attorney will also assist with collection litigation and other creditors' rights matters as business needs require. The position will work in tandem with other associate attorneys and report to the Managing Shareholder of Bankruptcy.

Pay Range: $80,000 – $ 130,000 annually.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Represent creditors in Chapter 7, Chapter 11, and Chapter 13 bankruptcy proceedings.
- Prepare, review, and file motions for relief from the automatic stay, objections to exemptions, objections to confirmation, proofs of claim, and other bankruptcy pleadings.
- Review bankruptcy petitions, schedules, plans, and related filings to identify and protect creditors' interests.
- Attend bankruptcy hearings, contested matters, and other court proceedings.
- Evaluate and respond to proposed bankruptcy plans, settlements, and other actions affecting creditor claims.
- Communicate with clients, trustees, opposing counsel, and court personnel regarding assigned matters.
- Provide legal analysis and recommendations to clients regarding bankruptcy strategy, recovery options, and potential risks.
- Maintain accurate case records and ensure compliance with court rules, filing requirements, and applicable deadlines.
- Collaborate with paralegals, legal support staff, and other attorneys to ensure efficient case handling.
- Assist with collection litigation, including replevin actions, judgment enforcement, and other creditors' rights proceedings, as needed.
- Perform other legal duties as assigned.

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree from an accredited law school.
- Active license to practice law in Ohio, in good standing.
- Admission to the applicable federal bankruptcy courts or eligibility to obtain admission.
- Experience representing creditors in bankruptcy proceedings preferred.
- Familiarity with the United States Bankruptcy Code, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and applicable local rules.
- Strong legal research, writing, analytical, and negotiation skills.
- Ability to manage multiple cases, prioritize assignments, and meet strict deadlines.

- Strong communication skills and the ability to work independently and collaboratively.
- Experience with collection litigation or other creditors' rights matters is a plus.
- Proficiency with legal case management systems and Microsoft Office applications.
